

Sail the Hawaiian Islands! January 2019

Join Wendy & Chris on the always popular sailing of the Pride of America as it navigates the islands of Hawai'i. No one lets you capture the pure spirit and soul of Hawai'i like Norwegian Cruise Line with four islands visited in seven days with overnight stays in Maui and Kaua'i. Because they sail round-trip from Honolulu, you will have a full seven days in paradise! We have added an extra night on the front end so you can travel without the worry of time constraints. Of course, you may choose to add additional nights to make this trip truly your own.

Friday, January 4 Fly to Honolulu, Oahu. Hotel overnight.
Saturday, January 5 Morning at leisure in Honolulu. Mid-day tour and transfer to ship for a 7 pm sailing

Sun-Mon, January 6 & 7 Kahului, Maui In port from 8 am-6 pm Monday
Maui, the second-largest island of the archipelago, typifies all that is magical about the Sandwich Islands (as Capt. Cook first called the island chain). It's also referred to as the Valley Isle because a verdant, low-lying isthmus connects the two halves of the island. From the air, Maui looks like a butterfly with the 10,000-foot Haleakala volcano on one wing, Pu'u Kukui and the West Maui mountains on the other and the valley in the middle. You'll revel at the stark contrast between the stunning variety of flowering tropical plants and cascading waterfalls and the lunar-like landscape of Haleakala and Maui's other mountain peaks, not to mention the more than 120 miles of coastline. The temperature is just about always an ideal 85°F.

Tuesday, January 8 Hilo, Hawai'i In port from 8 am-6pm
To really experience Hilo, forget first impressions and dive right in to old Hawai'i. Unpretentious and just a little bit gritty, this often-overlooked city on the Big Island is abundantly authentic and full of charm. Why is it overlooked? Hilo is the departure point for shore excursions to Hawaii Volcanoes National Park, one of the most popular tourist destinations in the state. And that's too bad because there's much to recommend Hilo itself, defined in part by a history of tsunamis and challenging economics. As one survivor of a devastating 1946 tsunami put it: "We just cleaned up and went on with our lives." That same sentiment prevails today. There's a "pick yourself up, and dust yourself off" attitude and activism that has infused classic downtown Hilo with fresh energy palpable in its restaurants, shops, galleries and museums along with a tremendous amount of civic pride. Hilo, which rests on the crescent-shaped Hilo Bay, possesses a rich cultural history. It's in Hilo that King Kamehameha is said to have fulfilled a prophecy of uniting the Hawaiian islands by lifting the ancient Naha stone, which now sits in front of the library.

Wednesday, January 9 Kona, Hawai'i In port from 7am-5:30 pm
While cruise ships call it "Kona," this stop on the western part of the island of Hawaii is actually a region rather than an actual city. Ships anchor in Kailua Bay and tender their guests to the Kailua Pier, which is right in the middle of Kailua Village, the historic heart of Kailua-Kona. Kona is sunnier and dryer than Hilo to the east -- it almost never rains -- and features the island's best beaches, snorkeling and surfing. (The east coast is more tropical, with waterfalls and mountainous regions closer to the town of Hilo. Believe it or not, the island has 11 climatic zones!) Coffee grown in the hills above Kailua-Kona (the one place where it rains more in the summer than in the winter) is very delicious and highly prized. Beaches in the area range from black sand to sugar white, with sea turtles, manta rays, dolphins and in season, November to May, humpback whales.

Thur-Fri, January 10 & 11 Nawiliwili, Kaua'i In port from 8 am-2 pm Friday
Kauai is the oldest of the eight major Hawaiian Islands, with volcanic rock dating back more than 5 million years. But the island still displays all the beauty and vigor of youth. From lush rain forests and valleys to majestic mountains and long stretches of white sand, there's no question: Nature takes center stage here. In fact, Kauai has more beaches per mile of coastline than any of the other islands. Only three percent of the island has been developed for commercial and residential use; the rest is agricultural and conservation lands. Two-thirds of Kauai's land area is impenetrable. To ensure that concrete will never conceal Kauai's beauty, officials passed a law stipulating that no buildings on the island can stand higher than a palm tree (three or four stories). So no matter when or where you are on Kauai, nature will always reign. This afternoon we will cruise the Na Pali coast.

Saturday, January 12
Touring and transfer to airport for return overnight flights or extensions on own.

Notes: Specific shore excursion details will be available in late summer 2018. We are planning private shore excursions, classes, group meals, and informal gatherings for your enjoyment. We encourage you to explore each destination to the fullest and take in all the activities onboard the ship, whether with the group or on your own.

Our goal is to include fiber related activities where possible. This may include meeting with local guilds, visiting shops that carry fabric, yarns, native crafts or other fiber arts, taking part in workshops, or featuring guest educators/speakers. We will have a pre-trip project as well. These activities are included in the package at no charge. Participation is optional.

This ship was built in 2005 and was totally refurbished in 2017. It features 14 decks with 16 dining options, 12 bars and lounges, fitness center, salon, spa, and pools. This is a smaller ship with a capacity of 2,186 passengers.

Air Transportation: Flights will be available in late January 2018. From the Midwest, you can expect a nonstop flight to be about nine hours (Chicago, ~$950). A connection will be about 12 hours in duration (but breaks up the flight nicely!) (Chicago ~$725, Milwaukee ~$825). Return flights tend to be overnight, leaving HNL around 5pm.

Documentation: The Real ID act goes into effect in October 2018. You will need an enhanced ID or passport for all flights, even within the US. (In Wisconsin, an Enhanced ID/Driver's License is identifiable by a star verification mark on the front of the card in the upper, right-hand corner.)

What's Included? Cruise fare, port fees, government taxes, ship gratuities, group gatherings, shore excursions in five ports (Honolulu, Kahului, Hilo, Kona, Nawiliwili), one night Honolulu hotel, group transfers, classes, and meals<sup>A</sup> with pricing based on shared double occupancy. Each cabin will also have $75 credit to spend as you like.

Insurance: Through experience, we have made it our policy not to include travel insurance in package pricing. While including it makes it easier for you, finding that your needs are not covered by a universal policy makes that coverage a waste of money. We recommend independent internet sites (such as travelinsurancereview.net) or your preferred insurance agent to find the coverage you need based on your work status, health, and choice of coverage level. Policy cost is based on total trip cost, age, and desired coverage inclusions. Insurance is optional. We will assist you in obtaining a policy if so desired. This company has proven to be exemplary in processing claims (<https://www.squaremouth.com/21876>) and as an independent, they sell all companies.

Cruise Documents: NCL provides all travel documents electronically and requires advance online check-in. Each traveler will be required to set up an account at ncl.com and complete the check-in process prior to departure. If you do not have access to the internet, please check the appropriate box on the registration form and we will contact you for the information necessary to get checked in and obtain your documents when the time comes.

Dining: NCL has a reputation for re-imagining the whole concept of cruising by creating Freestyle Dining. There are numerous dining options available to please your palate. Your choices include six complimentary restaurants (two dining rooms, 50s Diner, Aloha Café, Key West Bar & Grill, Asian), eight specialty options<sup>A</sup> (surcharge or a la carte pricing - steakhouse, churrascaria, French, Teppanyaki, Italian, sushi, coffee bar, gelato bar), as well as room service. [<sup>A</sup>Specialty restaurants have a cover charge and 18% service fee; room service at certain hours may have a $7.95 service fee.]

Entertainment, Amenities, Bars, & Lounges: The Pride of America has numerous locations to enjoy entertainment, a chat with friends, or some simple solitude. The ship features walking/jogging track, pools, hot tub, spa, fitness center, library, shopping. Entertainment options currently on board include two stage shows (Jersey Boys-style tribute to Frankie Valli and the Four Seasons; as well as "Vegas! The Show"), comedy and magic shows, and movie screenings. Plus, you will find a multitude of other lounges, galleries, and daily activities. And don't forget NCL's trademark White Hot Party!

Beverage Package: The usual drink packages are not available on the Pride of America due to taxation laws for American flagged ships. We will have one cocktail party, all other beverages will be on your own. We can order water packages prior to sailing at a discounted price. Carry on of any beverage is not allowed.

Cabin Occupancy: All pricing is based on two per cabin. Single occupancy in cabins is significantly higher in cost unless you opt for a Studio cabin. NCL limits the number of single occupancy cabins for each group. If you do not have a roommate and would like one, we will put you in touch with others looking to share.

All details necessary to fully enjoy this tour will be provided once we finalize the participants. Despite the legal disclaimers we are now required to include, Journeys & Gatherings is here to assist in making this trip all that you want it to be!

Terms and Conditions

GENERAL

- By registering and depositing, you agree that you have read and agree to the terms and conditions written herein. Your acceptance of these Terms & Conditions hereby releases Journeys & Gatherings and Sew We Go (further herein labeled PROVIDERS) from any and all claims involving health, disease outbreaks, safety, security, political stability, and labor or civil unrest at each destination. You also agree that the courts in Waukesha County Wisconsin will be the exclusive jurisdiction for all claims brought by you or PROVIDERS and you hereby submit to the personal jurisdiction of those courts.
- There are times when unforeseen circumstances require a change in our trip offering or inclusions. Equivalent or better substitutions will be made where possible.
- When traveling with us, you assume complete responsibility for complying with document, vaccination, or other entry requirements of our destinations. Passports must comply with immigration regulations which may include, but are not limited to, having at least two blank passport pages when entering a country and having no less than six months from return date before passport expiration. If traveling domestically, your ID must confirm to the Real ID Act being implemented in October 2018.
- We communicate primarily by email. An email address is required for each participant so we may provide updates, payment reminders, receipts, and confirmations. There is a surcharge of $30 per person to cover the additional time, supplies, and postage required to accommodate non-electronic communication.
- Smoking is not allowed on any of our transportation nor within 50' of the entrance of any vehicle or venue that is provided exclusively for our group.

SAFETY

- Please be aware that during your participation, certain risks and dangers may arise beyond our control, including but not limited to: the hazards of traveling in undeveloped areas; travel by boat, train, automobile, aircraft, or other means of transportation; the forces of nature; political unrest; acts of lawlessness or terrorism; and accident or illness in remote regions without means of rapid evacuation or medical facilities. PROVIDERS will not have liability regarding provision of medical care or the adequacy of any care that may be rendered. It is understood that the best efforts to ensure that adequate measures are taken.

PARTICIPATION

- Carefully consider your ability to participate. It is your ultimate responsibility to know your limitations and not undertake a tour or activity that might be too much for you. Our tours may include walking distances, up inclines, on stairways, cobblestone streets, and other uneven areas. At times the walking pace may be fast and somewhat strenuous. If a medical condition exists or there is any question regarding your ability to participate in a safe and healthy manner in our schedule of activities, please consult your physician before registering for this trip. Failure to comply may result in inability to participate on the tour and all penalties will apply. PROVIDERS are not responsible for any expenses incurred in this situation.
- Travelers who need special assistance must report any disability requiring special attention while on tour at the time the reservation is made. PROVIDERS will make reasonable attempts to accommodate the special needs of disabled travelers, but are not responsible in the event they are unable to do so nor are they responsible for any denial of services by suppliers. The Americans with Disabilities Act is only applicable within the United States and facilities for disabled individuals are limited outside its borders.
- Most transportation services, including the touring motorcoach, are not equipped with wheelchair ramps. We regret that we cannot guarantee individual assistance to a participant for walking, dining, dis/embarking vehicles, or other personal needs. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance and must assume full responsibility for their wellbeing.

REGISTRATION

- All registrations must be accompanied by a signed registration form completed in full. We require the signature of each person traveling. In addition to the contact info requested on the form, names as they are on your passport, birthdates, address, and emergency contact info is required before we will accept a deposit to confirm your participation. You are wholly responsible for providing your full name as issued on your passport or government identification. Any charge for document corrections due to the submission of incorrect information will be the direct responsibility of the passenger.
- Those wishing to participate in any portion of our itinerary must purchase the tour via Journeys & Gatherings. Except in very rare cases, partial participation is not an option.

TOUR ETIQUETTE

- Our itinerary has been designed for the enjoyment of all participants. Please follow the agenda as published and be attentive for any day to day changes announced on the coach, at the hotel, or at our tour stops. We ask that you pay attention to coach locations (drop off and pickup points may be different), correct time as followed by Tour Director, and directives as to activities in any one location.
- Repeated tardiness is disruptive and disrespectful and often results in added cost. Participants may be asked to leave the tour for this behavior. PROVIDERS are not financially or otherwise responsible for anyone's costs to rejoin the tour or make their way home should a scheduled coach departure be missed or if they are asked to leave the group.
- For the benefit of the entire group, we reserve the right to decline inclusion or remove any participant whose conduct is deemed incompatible with the interests of the other participants. We will not refund nor cover any cost or expenses you incur if we have to terminate your participation due to unacceptable behavior.
- Seat rotation is requested for each extended ride on the bus (> 1 hour) to afford all with equal opportunity to sit in the front of the bus.
- If motion sickness is an issue, consider ginger chews, Dramamine, prescription patches or medications. Roads may be uneven and touring may be along small, winding roads.

HOUSING

- Hotels are subject to availability & subject to change.
- The norm is two-bedded rooms with private bath or shower, based on double occupancy. Larger single beds may be available in some destinations.
- Single accommodations are limited and on a request basis. Triples are not available.

AIR/FLIGHTS

- Do not book flights until your participation in the trip has been confirmed to you by Journeys & Gatherings. PROVIDERS are not responsible for flight/change costs purchased by participants at any time.
- PROVIDERS are not responsible if an airline cancels, reschedules, or delays a flight for any reason. If you miss your departure flight, it is your responsibility to work with the airline on which you are ticketed to reach your destination. Any additional expenses you may incur prior to joining your trip are your responsibility.
- Journeys & Gatherings will gladly assist in the procurement of your flights. We will schedule a time to talk via phone and tickets will be booked through the applicable airline's website. Use of third party booking websites is not recommended for international travel. If a traveler chooses to use such site, they take responsibility for any flight issues that may occur such as rebook, bump, cancel, delay, upcharge, or denied boarding. This applies whether booked on your own or with the PROVIDERS help.

TRAVEL/MEDICAL INSURANCE

- Travel insurance is an optional purchase. If traveling outside of the US, medical coverage is advised if health is a concern or your ability to pay in the event of an injury is limited. We highly recommend Emergency Medical and Medical Evacuation & Repatriation at a minimum. Journeys & Gatherings recommends Squaremouth based on their 100% fulfillment of claims processed by our travelers. Visit <https://www.squaremouth.com/21876> to receive a quote. Expect insurance to cost 7-10% of your travel costs depending on your age.
- Policies purchased through the tour provider do not cover any other aspects of the trip nor protect you should they default. Independent coverage based on your age and amount you want covered is the only way to guarantee reimbursement.
- Journeys & Gatherings will gladly schedule a phone appointment and walk you through the process while providing input on companies and coverage limits. This has proven to be most successful with past travelers.

BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE:

- Portage for one suitcase is included in the price. Airport portage is not included unless otherwise specified in your travel documents. Due to limited vehicle capacities, your single bag should have dimensions not exceeding 64" (L+W+D) and weight not exceeding 50lbs (22kg). We regret that we are unable to accept a second suitcase, or any luggage exceeding these limits.
- Carry-on bags should not exceed the cumulative dimensions of 29". For safety reasons, wheeled carry-on bags are not suitable as hand luggage on the motorcoach. Carry-on bags must be small enough to store in overhead bins or under the seat in front of you.
- Your air carrier may have stricter weight/dimension limitations than those listed above. Size and weight limitations for carry-on and checked baggage vary from airline to airline and even according to destination and are becoming more restrictive.
- Regulations within most airports require that travelers handle their own luggage through customs.
- PROVIDERS are not responsible for loss of or damage to baggage or any of the traveler's belongings throughout the duration of the tour. Please insure you confirm your bag is loaded before boarding a vehicle.

ROOMMATES

- PROVIDERS will not assign roommates. We will provide contact information of others requesting a roommate so you can connect and determine compatibility. If a roommate is not found and single occupancy is still available, payment of that supplement will be required and/or cancellation parameters in effect on that date will apply.
- Should a roommate cancel and you wish to participate in the tour, you are responsible for the single supplement and/or cancellation penalties in effect on that date.

PRICE/PAYMENTS

- Deposits are as stated on the registration materials and are required to secure reservations and hold your place.
- We will maintain a waitlist of interested participants so we may quickly fill in seats vacated by those needing to cancel. Pricing is based on the number of travelers so refunds can only be processed if tour costs are maintained. Should your cancellation cause an increase in per person cost, refunds cannot be processed. It is highly recommended you purchase travel insurance.
- Travel arrangements involving government regulated components are subject to supplemental price increases that may be imposed after you have completed your purchase (fuel surcharges, national, local, facility taxes, etc.). You hereby consent to any such price increases and will send a check or authorize your credit/debit card to be used for them when you are notified.
- Payments must be made directly to Journeys & Gatherings. Any payments made directly to tour suppliers will not be credited to your final payment invoice resulting in non-issuance of documents and inability to participate in the tour.
- Acceptable payment methods may be changed or altered at any time. Currently, acceptable payment forms are check (on a US Bank in US funds), Paypal transfer, wire transfer, or credit/debit cards. Our pricing is based on cash/check payments to reduce costs. If you wish to pay by credit card, Journeys & Gatherings will process these transactions through Paypal with a surcharge. You agree not to file a charge back or refund request with Paypal but rather directly with Journeys & Gatherings.
- Payments that have been declined must be replaced via expedited delivery in the form of a certified check or money order and must include a $50 service fee. Failure to comply will result in your space being canceled and loss of your deposit.
- Discounts for those not participating in the fiber related workshops, lectures, group visits, or any other portion of the tour do not apply. We will schedule alternate activities in these timeframes or allowed exploration time resulting in no lost value.

REFUNDS:

- Pricing is based on the number of travelers so refunds can only be processed if tour costs are maintained. Should your cancellation cause an increase in per person cost, refunds cannot be processed until that space is filled. It is highly recommended you purchase travel insurance.
- All cancellation requests must be made in writing with an original signature sent by expedited delivery or certified mail to Journeys & Gatherings, 2060 Hawthorne Drive, Elm Grove WI 53122.
- Group airport transfers are included on qualifying flights and dates. Not all flight times qualify. Customers not using the included transfer will not be given a cash equivalent or price reduction.
- Refunds in full or part will not be provided for missed inclusions due to canceled, rescheduled, or delayed flights.
- Cancellations received after the final date in the Cancellation Schedule will not receive a refund. Insurance is highly recommended and reimbursements on a claim are at the sole discretion of the insurance carrier.
- Replacement participants are required to pay the full tour amount to our office, not to the original traveler. Any non-refundable fees incurred by the original participant's cancellation may be claimed through their insurance.
- Refunds may not be processed until four weeks after the tour ending date.
- Refunds due will be made by check written in US dollars or via Paypal transfer, based on original form of payment.
- Tour components and services are contracted through established, reputable tour companies and hotels, as well as other travel service providers. No refunds can be granted for any accommodations, services or events which are not used after payment to the vendors. If you elect not to participate or deviate from any portion of the tour, no consideration will be given for unused services.

Journeys & Gatherings is an independent coordinator acting solely as organizer for the tour participants, while the contracted suppliers provide accommodation, transportation, sightseeing, entrance fees, restaurants and most other services in connection with the itinerary. PROVIDERS will exercise reasonable care in making such arrangements, however, they do not assume any liability whatsoever, for any injury, damage, loss, accident or delay to person or property because of any acts of war or terrorism, any act of default of any supplier or person rendering any of the services included in the tours. The tickets, rules, or contracts currently in use by any supplier rendering service shall constitute the sole contract between such contractor and you, the individual tour member.
